THE FOOTBALL CRAZE

1 1 A lot has changed since the days of one of1..... English footballers, 2 Sir Stanley Mathews,2..... died recently aged 85. At the top of his 3 career he earned a maximum of £503..... week. Now players earn up 4 to £20,000.....3..... week!

5 2 Sir Mathews continued4..... league football until he was fifty years 6 old and was never "booked", but nowadays it is quite common for players to be 7 given5..... a yellow card as a warning, or a red card, which means 8 they are sent off the pitch for a foul or for bad behaviour.

9 36..... Football is one of the most popular sports in Britain. Children 10 like to start playing as soon as they are old enough to kick the ball. They begin to 11 follow7..... favourite team, either watching8.....
12 television or going to matches with7..... friends and family. The best 13 teams are in the premier league, the rest are in the first, second and third 14 divisions.

15 4 Supporters often buy the same shirt and shorts9..... the players. This 16 is known as the team strip. The styles change each season10.....the 17 fans can find it very expensive to keep up.

18 5 Footballers are bought and sold by the managers of each team. The premier 19 league has many international players who are highly paid in Britain. As a result 20 many footballers have lifestyles similar to film celebrities or pop stars. In fact,
21 two of the most famous people in Britain today are David Beckham, a footballer 22 who plays for Manchester United and England, and his wife, Victoria, known as 23 "Posh Spice" from the Spice Girls pop group. Fans follow the couple wherever 24 they go.

25 6 In the World Cup or European matches, the United Kingdom divides into four 26 separate countries: England, Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland. There is 27 always great competition when England and Scotland play each other. Many 28 Scottish fans will support any other team which is playing against England, 29 rather than cheer for their neighbours and fiercest rivals!
