Best friend donates kidney:

Derek Marshall and Bill Brough: Lifelong friends

1 A remarkable friendship will go .... (1) step further on Wednesday when Bill
2 Brough will ..... (2) a kidney from his best pal Derek Marshall. The rare friend-
3 to-friend organ transplant at Newcastle's Freeman Hospital, will be one of only a 4 1 few to be carried out .... (3) the UK. The pair, from Teesside, have known each
5 other since their school days. If the two-hour operation is a success, it will mean
6 54-year-old Mr Brough, whose kidneys ..... (4) damaged by Legionnaire's
7 Disease, will be able to live a near-normal life.
8 Mr Brough, who ..... (5) a shipping company, contracted the disease on a trip 9 2 to Mexico in 2001. Mr Brough said: "I really don't know how long I would 10 survive without Derek's help. Everyone has friends, but ..... (6) don't think many 11 have a friend like this."
12 Unlike kidneys obtained from donors after death, the transplant has a good 13 3 chance of success as long as the donor is fit and healthy and has the same blood 14 group as the recipient.
15 The transplant will free Mr Brough from four-hour sessions on a kidney machine
16 three times a week. The pair have ..... (7) each other since they were youngsters 17 4 at Whinney Banks Primary School in Middlesbrough. Mr Marshall, 56, who 18 comes from Middlesbrough, used ..... (8) run his own haulage business before 19 ..... (9) Mr Brough's firm.
20 He said: "If you were a brother you wouldn't ..... (10). I can manage 21 5 perfectly well with one kidney." Mr Brough, who lives in Great Ayton, Teesside, 22 was told he would have to rely on kidney dialysis for the rest of his life, unless a 23 suitable donor could be found.
